

HOW TO NAVIGATE THROUGH YOUR IRS ACCOUNT

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the IRS account. The bar is dark blue with white text. The first tab, 'Account Home', is highlighted with a red box. A red arrow points from a red box labeled 'Navigation bar' to the right side of the navigation bar. Below the navigation bar, the page title 'Welcom' is visible. A light blue banner contains an 'Important Message from the IRS' about the Child Tax Credit Update Portal. Below this, there are two main sections: 'Account Status' and 'Records'. The 'Account Status' section has a link to 'View Balance Details'. The 'Records' section has a link to 'View Tax Records' and a list of record types: Key information from your most recent tax return, Economic Impact Payment Information, and Downloadable tax records. There are also links to 'View Notices and Letters' and 'View Authorizations'.

The screenshot shows the 'Account Balance' page. The navigation bar is dark blue with white text. The 'Account Balance' tab is highlighted with a red oval. A red box labeled 'If you owe the IRS money, you can view it here' points to the 'You Owe' column in the table. Below the table, a red box labeled 'Where to set up payment options' points to a blue button labeled 'GO TO PAYMENT OPTIONS'. The page title 'Account Balance' is prominently displayed. Below the title, there is a section for 'Total Amount Owed' with a link to 'View your account information in the Details By Year section.' and a note that the information is based on current data. A list of factors that may not reflect the balance is provided: Recently filed or processing returns, Pending payments or adjustments, Information on your business account, and Installment agreement fees. A link to 'Frequency Asked Questions About Balances' is also present. The 'Details By Year' section shows a table with columns for 'Tax Year' and 'You Owe'. The table lists years from 2021 down to 2016, with the 2021 row highlighted in light blue. The 'You Owe' column shows $0.00 for all years. An 'INFO' icon is next to the 2021 row.
